COMPANY DESCRIPTION

The stories told by UCI Applied Innovation at the Cove represent the cutting-edge of innovation. This internship is a key part of making sure those stories are told as powerfully as possible, and help build a community around Orange County’s growing innovation district at the Cove, located at the Research Park at UCI. You will be playing a significant role in helping both the regional and global community become more aware of UCI’s leading role in entrepreneurship and business innovation.

Interns will be working directly with an award-winning storyteller with deep experience leading marketing efforts for top tier brands as well as Silicon Valley startups, including co-writing and directing a viral video for a Fortune 100 brand that has been viewed over 49 million times. This position is highly creative and analytical. You will gain invaluable ‘real-world’ experience and opportunities to learn the latest trends in digital marketing.

We value our interns immensely and go the extra mile to make sure that they receive a learning experience that fits their career goals. Interns will learn how to work in a professional environment and have opportunities to network with entrepreneurs, VCs and Angels, executive leaders, and other professionals.
